

SHREDDING FOR DOGS BRINGS COMMUNITY TOGETHER AT SHRED EVENT

For Immediate Release -

BURNABY, BC [March 27, 2012] - Canada's first trauma assistance intervention dog, Caber and about a dozen Assistance dogs from Pacific Assistance Dogs Society (PADS) was the main attraction at a free community shred event held on Saturday March 24, 2012 in North Vancouver.

The event was a fundraiser hosted by Silver Bullet Shredding, Rona and the Better Business Bureau to celebrate national fraud prevention month and to raise some much needed funds for PADS.

Local dog celebrity Caber who became a member of the Delta Police Department's Victims Services Unit in July 2010 was on hand to meet and greet north shore residents. Caber has been featured in newspapers and magazines across the country since becoming Canada's first trauma assistance intervention dog to be working with a police force.

"The generosity of north shore residents helped us raise just over $1,320 for PADS in three hours. We're happy to do these events and give back to the community", said Silver Bullet Shredding founder and president Bailey Jung.
